Dublin 22.

Re/ You -v- University College Dublin
Record No. 2006/07275

Dear Mr. Kelly,

We refer to the above matter and to your appeal to the High Court arising from the Order of the Circuit Court of 12th March 2007, which was heard before Judge McKechnie on 23rd April last.

In the course of the hearing Counsel on behalf of the University indicated to the Court that the University would be prepared to provide you with disclosure of the documentation you have sought subject to redaction of all personal details pertaining to each applicant including their names and addresses. Counsel confirmed that details of each individual successful applicant's qualifications, work experience and gender would be provided.

The purpose of this letter is to confirm on an open basis the University's willingness to provide you with disclosure of that documentation on the basis of the redaction of personal information.

As you are aware, Judge McKechnie has put the matter back in for mention at 11.00 am on next Monday, April 30th.

Yours sincerely,

Eugene O'Sullivan,
JOHN J. McDONALD & CO.
